WRITER'S WEEK 2023

Ten years ago Brighton Primary School had its first Writer's Week Awards. This year has once again seen some wonderful entries showing what talented young writers we have in our school. Teachers have handed in their Shortlisted entries and the Growth as a Writer entries.

Judging is currently taking place as and by the end of Week 4 we will have chosen the Overall Winners for each year level. These winners and the Growth as a Writer winner from each class will be announced at the assembly on Thursday morning in Week 6. The assembly will be followed by our Book Week Parade.

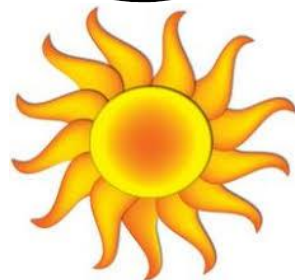

The countdown is on...

3 weeks to go

This year's challenge finishes on Fri 8th Sept, Week 7.

Keep reading and get your Student Record Sheets into the library as soon as you can.

Would you like to know more about our solar system and the planets around us?

Well you can!

Come into the library and take part in a project where students are piecing together our solar system, bit by bit.
